

Norðatlantex 2011 Christmas 2011 New Postal Rates Stamp of the Year 2010

Stamp of the year 2010

Norðatlantex 2011

On 27-28 May, the Norðatlantex 2011 stamp exhibition was held in the Nordic House in the Faroe Islands.

The exhibition was held to celebrate Føroya Filatelistfelag turning 75 years old on 28 May and the 35-year-anniversary on 1 April 2011 of Postverk Føroya's (now Posta) founding.

The exhibition was a club exhibition without medal awards, but with an audience vote. Posta, Føroya Filatelistfelag and the Faroese Red Cross each had booths, and Posta also presented a historical exhibition. Old post equipment was on exhibit to give visitors an impression of what an ordinary post office in the Faroe Islands looked like in the 1920s and 1950s. Post Director Joel undir Leitinum opened the exhibition and Guðrið Hansdóttir performed and sang during the opening.

Two special cancellations were made to mark the celebration, which can be ordered using the order form.

On the whole, it was an excellent exhibition that both Posta and Føroya Filatelistfelag can be very pleased about. Stamp collectors worldwide have been T participating in the voting for the most beautiful Faroese stamp of the year 1) 2010. Here is the result:

The winner trip 2011

Bo Maach-Møller from Denmark was the lucky winner of the trip to the Faroe Islands, which took place in June 2011. He took his son with him on the trip.

The trip was planned by GreenGate Incoming, which arranged a number of activities during the stay in the Faroe Islands.

For example, they visited the Faroe Islands Aquarium, where diver Ingi Sørensen gave a talk and showed pictures taken on the seabed around the Faroe Islands. They also enjoyed a sailing trip with the schooner Norðlýsið and other excursions.

Above are some pictures from the trip on the schooner Norðlýsið.

We are pleased to hear that both father and son really enjoyed their holiday.

You will have the opportunity to win a trip to the Faroe Islands again next year. Everyone who votes for the Most Beautiful Stamp of the Year 2011 will be entered in the draw. There will be more information about this in the next issue of Posta Stamps magazine, coming in November 2011.
